Privacy statement

Streetlife, with its registered office at Herengracht 36, 2312 LD Leiden, the Netherlands, is responsible for processing personal data as set out in this privacy statement.

Personal data that we process

Streetlife processes your personal data because you use our services and/or because you provide us with your personal data yourself.

Below, you will find an overview of the personal data we process:

- First and last name
- Gender
- Email address
- Function
- Other personal data that you actively provide, for example in correspondence and by telephone
- Information about your activities on our website

For what purpose and on what basis do we process personal data?

Streetlife processes your personal data for the following purposes.

- To handle your order and payment
- To send you our digital newsletter and/or printed matter
- To be able to call or email you if this is necessary for us to perform our services
- To inform you about changes to our services and products
- To deliver goods and services to you
- Streetlife also processes personal data if we are legally obliged to do so; this might include information we need for our tax returns

Automated decision-making

Streetlife does not make use of automated decision-making.

How long do we keep personal data?

Streetlife does not store your personal data for longer than is necessary to achieve the purposes for which your data is collected.

Sharing personal data with third parties

Streetlife will share your personal data with various third parties if this is necessary to perform an agreement and in order to comply with any legal obligation. We conclude processor agreements with companies that process your data on our behalf to ensure the same level of security and data confidentiality. Streetlife remains responsible for these processing operations. In addition, Streetlife provides your personal data to other third parties for the purpose of processing postal items and digital newsletters. Your data will never be sold.

Cookies, or similar techniques, that we use

Streetlife only uses technical, functional and analytical cookies that do not infringe on your privacy. A cookie is a small text file that is stored on your computer, tablet or smartphone when you visit this website for the first time. The cookies we use are necessary for the technical operation of the website and your convenience. They ensure that the website works properly and remember your preferred settings, for example. Cookies also help us to optimise our website. You can disable cookies by changing the settings of your internet browser so that it no longer stores cookies. You can also delete all information previously stored through your browser settings.

Accessing, correcting or deleting personal data

You have the right to access, correct or delete your personal data. You also have the right to withdraw your consent for data processing or to object to the processing of your personal data by Streetlife. And you have the right to data transferability: this means you can submit a request to us to send the personal data that we have about you in a computer file to you or to another organisation specified by you.

You can request access to your personal data or have your personal data corrected, deleted or transferred by contacting us at data@streetlife.nl. You can also contact us via the same email address if you wish to withdraw your consent or you object to the processing of your personal data. We shall respond as soon as possible, no later than four weeks after receiving your email.

Streetlife would also like to inform you that you have the right to lodge a complaint with the national supervisory authority, the Dutch Data Protection Authority. You can do this via the following link:
